The owner proposes to stop retailing, but this will not suffice. The ladies watch now, as well as pray. Some of the saloon-keepers who have been unwillingly worsted are preparing to leave for Germany.

JEFFERSON, IND.

JEFFERSON, IND., February 16 .- The JEFFERSON, IND., February 16.—The women's crossade against the whisky traffic, opened up with renewed efforts at nine o'clock this morning. Great numbers of the Union association gathered and held devotional excreises at eight different saloons. At each valoon they were received kindly, and protected by the police from the jam of the immense crowd that congregated at every saloon. Business is partially suspended, and the streets lined with citizens of every class. The excitement over the movement is at its hight. So far no apparent effect has been noticed among the saloon proprietors. They all decline to sign the pledge. The bolsterous disposition that developed itself on Saturday among the dense crowd, was more quiet and orderly to-day, and at this hour, one o'clock, the Union adjourned to meet to-morrow to further prosecute the undertaking. urther prosecute the undertaking.

LOUSVILLE, KY. JEFFERSONVILLE, IND., February 16. JEFFERSONVILLE, IND., February 16. The excitement in reference to the temperance movement in this city, has reached Louisville, and this evening it is estimated that at least two thousand people, mostly Germans from that city had arrived, and every trip of the two ferryboats brings an increasing number. The exercises on the street have been abandoned for to-day, and at this hour, three o'clock, a large meeting for the good of the cause is being held at the Wall street Methodist church. The divine services are to continue in the streets and saloons. Tomorrow night a grand mass temperance meeting is to be held at Mozart hall.

COLUMBUS, OHIO. COLUMBUS, OHIO.

Columbus, O., February 16.—The first movement in the war on the liquor traffic was a meeting heid in the City Hail this evening. For than three thousand persons were present, about one half being ladies. A number of the members of the general assembly occupied seats on the plat orm. The meeting was called to order by Rev. Mr. Chadwick. After prayer by Rev. W. E. Moore the audience joined in singing the coronation with grand effect. Dio Lewis was chosen chairman, and at his request the audience sang, "Nearer my God to thee." Dr. Lewis said the words of this hymn was the key-note of this crusade. After saying that his health forbade him making a long speech, he proceeded to deliver a speech similar to that delivered at other points. He said the churches, in neglecting to furnish bright and happy places for young men to spend their evenings in, and to keep them out of places of dissipation and crime, were responsible for many blighted lives. them out of places of dissipation and crime, were responsible for many blighted lives. Much of his address was given to strictures on ladies who drank wine, and induced young men to drink. He said all real drunkards helped the temperance cause, because they showed new beginners what strong drink would do for a man. To accomplish the ab-lition of this liquor traffic, women must come to the front, for in this, as in all other great moral contests, women were women must come to the front, for in this, as in all other great moral centests, women were more effective worsers than men. Rev. A. C. Herst, of Washington Courthouse, on being called, gave a detailed account of the temperance work in his town, claiming all that had been accomplished due to earnest and persistent prayer. Senator Goodhue, of Summit, was next called, and he said he should be doing violence to his better Goodhue, of Summit, was next called, and he said he should be doing violence to his better nature should he refuse to add his voice to this great movement. He regarded this work as more mighty in its force than any avalanche isunched from the top of Mount Blanc. Dio Lewis again took the stand, and said when he started to this city he thought he would advise against any active movement for a couple of weeks, until the people could be better prepared by reading of the work at other points; but learning that one hundred women met in council yesterday, and declared for war, he was now ready for immediate organization. A nominating committee was then chosen, but it was soon after announced that no ex-A nominating committee was then chosen, but it was soon after announced that no executive committee would be chosen until the ladies could hold a meeting to morrow. A meeting of representative temperance men from various parts of Ohio, will be held in this city next Tuesday to take steps to organize a bureau to whom persons in all parts of the State can obtain information in regard to the method of conducting this work. Notwithstanding the audience was large and willing, the speakers failed to elicit any particular enthusiasm.

TUESDAY. RIPLEY, OHIO. RIPLEY, O., February 17.—The ladies have been out the various pikes for a mile or two to-day. The saloons are too far away to be effectually operated on under the present system, but some of them are asking for terms, and the ladies do not intend relaxing their efforts until all give up. The whisky element are trying to get off a big bluff in the shape of a scarecrow prosecution against those who reported the Lutheran minister as addicted to drink and profanity. It is no go, however, for his character is too well known, and agitation only develops new facts. This minister has acted a contemptible part, and after making an ass of himself, talks of suing the women for fifteen thou-and dollars. RIPLEY, O., February 17 .- The ladies Deselem was chosen president, and *rs. Tremaine secretary. An executive committee, consisting of one lady from each church, was chosen. A proposition to appoint on this committee representatives of temperance organizations was disagreed to, it being stated that Dio Lewis opposed such a course, as he was fully satisfied, this was a work for the churches rather than for secret organizations. It was her than for secret organizations. It was solved to hold a prayer-meeting each morning, but to make no active demonstrations until next Tuesday, when Lewis will return here, as he says, to take command of the forces until the capital city is regenerated.

JEFFERSONVILLE, IND. JEFFERSONVILL, IND , February 17. The ladies Temperance union made a fiznk movement on the non-union elements in this ommunity by quietly assembling at the Pres-ylerian church at twelve o'clock to the num-er of seventy, where all reporters and persons of members of the union were excluded. After their secret peliminary arrangements were effected, they moved to Johnson's sawere effected, they moved to Johnson's saloon, in the eastern part of the city, who met them kindly but, positively declined to sign the pledge. Several hymns were sung, and prayers were then offered up that bedimmed

A negro, who felt his freedom to an extraordinary extent, insuited some laddes in Banks, Love & Co.'s store this evening, and attempted to bully one of the firm, when he was politely kicked out, the negro thereupon drew a dirk, and made at the young man, cutting his coat just above the region of the heart, striking with such force that the dirk in the descent, entered his own thigh, severing the femoral artery. The assaulted drew his pistol, and would have shot the negro, not knowing he had wounded himself, but was prevented by Dave Jones and Jehn Wright, colored, who were anxious to save their friend. The negro died in a short time, from loss of blood.

The term balsam is derived from two Hebrew words, signifying the "prince of oils," and is worthily used as part of the title of Mansfield's Hungarian Balsam of Life, a remedy for coughs and colds, as well as for bronchils, influenza, consumption, and pulmonary diseases generally, which cannot be surpassed by any other combination known. This is no secret preparation; on the contrary, the names of all the ingredients will be found on the wrapper of each bottle, and every one with any pretension to knowledge of the properties of the plants in our fields will perceive the valuable nature of the medicine. The wood naptha used is not the common article of commerce, but is genuine English, of guaranteed purity, containing all the valuable properties of this great medicine. The roots and herbs used are purchased in large quantities from first hands, to insure their being fresh and properly cared. Senator Schurz presented a petition from the brokers and business men of at. Louis deprecating any increase in the volume of currency, and favoring a speedy return to specie payment.

Senator Logan, from the military affairs committee, reported a substitute for the bill to increase the pay department of the army. It provides for establishing the number of paymenters at fifty instead of sixty, paymasters to have the rank, pay and emoluments of majors of cavalry, and provides for repealing so much of the eighteenth section of the act of July 23th, 1885, as relates to persons from whom said paymasters shall be selected.

Senator Gordon introduced a bill drecting the secretary of the interfor to place on the pension-roil the names of all persons herefore dropped therefrom because of participation in the recent rebellion. Referred.

Senator Buckingham introduced a resolution providing that fifty-three dollars be paid to every Cherokee Indian now living east of the Mississippi river who shall form the tribe west of said river, being an amendment to the act of July 29, 1848.

Senator Carpenter introduced a bill to further protect the polls in the election of President and Vice-President, and members of congress. The Vice-President of the Stock Exchange Censured - Wall Street Stirred from Center to Circumference.

NEW YORK, February 17 .- A great frand was perpetrated upon the stock ex-change to-day—the greatest in the history of the institution. After the second cail, an in-dividual hunded to one of the pages of the board a letter addressed to Moses if Whee-lock, the vice-president, which he (the page) delivered to the gentleman named, and he read the same to the board, which was as fol-lows:

read the same to the board, which was as follows:

WESTERN UNION TRLEGRAPH CO., NEW YORK, February 17.

Moses A. Wheelock, Esq., Vice-President New York Stock Exchange:
As required by the rules of the New York stock exchange, you are hereby informed that the directors of this company, after mature deliberation, and acting, as they believe, in accordance with the ultimate best interests of the company, have decided to increase the capital stock of this company from forty-one million seventy-three thousand four hundred and ten dollars to fifty million dollars. The proceeds of the sales of additional slock together with the proceeds of the sale of $7.26 \cdot 25 of stock lately in the possession of the company, will be expended in repairs, the improvement of the present lines, and the extension of the lines of the company to nearly all the postofices in the United States, and all the postodices in the United States, and for the establishment of a line to California and Mexico. The directors beg to state that while the establishment of these new lines may delay for a little while the expected dividends to stockholders, they express a colident hope that by thus taking possession of the whole field, and effectually thwarting the establishment of two concerns. thwarting the establishment of rival comp nles, the ultimate value of the stock will be in no way diminished, and that ressonable dividends can be paid at no distant day. Yours truly, [Signed] WILLIAM ORTON, President. [Signed] WILLIAM ORTON, President. Hardly had the reading of this letter been finished when one of the pages of the board was handed another letter addressed to the rice-president, which was read by that gen leman as follows:

TOLEDO, WARASH AND WESTERN RAILWAY, NEW YORK, February 17, 1874. To the Vice-President of the New York Stock Exchange:
In accordance with the rules of the New York stock exchange, you are hereby notified that at the expiration of thirty days this company will issue $10,000,000 additional capital stock, increasing the common stock of the company from $15,000,000 to $25,000,000. The proceeds of such additional shares will be used for the purchase of hew rolling stock and engines and the repairing of the present rolling stock, for constructing new bridges, for building an additional double track, for the purchase of seel rails, for obtaining improved terminal facilities, and for other similar purposes of the company. Very respectfully, J. D. COX. To the Vice-President of the New York Stock ties, and for other similar purposes of the company. Very respectfully, J. D. COX. These letters caused great excitement on change, and immediately there was a general stampede to sell stocks, especially Western Union and Wabash. Amid general confusion, some members of the board had the good sense to examine the letters, and being good sense to extend the letters, and being smilliar with the signatures of Orton & Cox, pronounced the same forgeries. The officers of the exchange immediately sent letters to the offices of the Western Union telegraph and Wanash railway. The Wanash letter was returned, with the following note at its foot: "The above is not genuine. Mr. Cox is in Totale." There has been no meeting. Neither is

I have just learned that an announcement has been made in the stock exchange that the directors of the Western Union telegraph have recently voted to increase the capital stock to fifty million dollars. This announcement has no foundation in fact. No meeting of directors has been held for several months, nor has the matter of an increase of the capital stock of the company been the subject of consideration at any meeting of the executive committee. Kespectfully, WM. ORTON, President.

Detectives are already on the track of the perpetrator of these forgers. It is expected that a handsome reward will be offered for the detection of these forgers. The vice-president was blamed by some of the members for reading the letters without first consulting the president of the exchange, and it is stated that the matter is under discussion in the governing committee. Every effort will be made to ferret out this audactions swindle on the stock exchange. made to ferret out this audacious swindle on the stock exchange.

The Commercial says the most suspicious feature of the nefarious transaction is Mr. Wheelock assuming to act as vice-president, and reading the forged communications from the Western Union and Wabash offices, when he is nothing more than chairman of the floor committee. Wheelock is an old member of the stock exchange and has sustained a reputable character up to this time, it behooves the board to inquire into his dealings in those stocks recently, as well as to find out who have been the late buyers and sellers for themselves and for other parameters. and sellers for themselves and for other par-ties. The sales of Western Union stock, after the forged letters were read, amounted to sixty-five thousand shares, and of Wabash twenty thousand shares.

COLUMBUS, O., February 16.—The first movement in the war on the liquor traffic was a meeting heid in the City Hall this evening. Some than three thousand persons were present, about one half being ladies. A number of the members of the general assembly occupied seats on the plat orm. The meeting was called to order by Rev. W. E. Moore the audience joined in singing the coronation with grand effect, Dio Lewis was chosen chairman, and at his request the audience sang. "Nearer my God to thee." Dr. Lewis said the words of his request the audience sang. "Nearer my God to thee." Dr. Lewis said the words of his request the audience of this crusade. After saying that his health forbade him making a long speech, he proceeded to deliver a speech similar to that delivered at other points. He said the charches, in neglecting for the provisions also requiring national banks and the federal government to have the keeping of such bonds, and issuring a long speech, he proceeded to deliver a speech similar to that delivered at other points. The senate then proceeded to the consideration of places of dissipation and crime, were responsible for many blighted lives. ing was passed on a joint resolution: Authorizing the secretary-of-war to detail medical officers of the army to inquire into and report upon the causes of epidemic chelera.

The morning hour naving expired, the senate resumed the consideration of the bill to equalize the distribution of currency, the pending motion being that of Senator Buckingham to re-commit the bill to the finance committee. Senator Merriman moved an amendment to instruct the committee to report as scon as practicable on the bill providing for an increase of the national bank, circulation so that the whole value should not exceed four hundred million dollars.

Senator Scott submitted an amendment to that of Senator Merriman, providing for the redemption of the whole body of the national bank currency in specie or interest-bearing bonds of the United States. He said he hoped the motion to recommit would be adopted, as the best way to dispose of this whole question was to refer back to the committee, and get its views on the subject.

A motion to reconsider and lay on the table having been made in order to make the last vote final, dilatory motions were introduced on the Democratic side, with the explanation that they wanted it to go over till to merrow. During the first call of the roll, which was on a motion to adjourn over till Friday, there was a general thinning out of members; many started down town, others repaired to the restaurants to fortify themselves for the contingency of an all-night session. Mr. Rutler [Massachusetts], who made the motion to reconsider, showed his determination to fight it out on that line if it took all night, by having his dinner brought to his dess. Almost all the seats were vacated, and the members who remained in the hall collected in groups discussing the situation and how to avoid the threatened dead-lock. Mr. Cox's position was to renew it.

The vote for adjournment until Friday showed that no quorum was present, and the speaker stated that in that condition of the house as motions were in order except to adjourn or for a call of the house. Both motions were made on the Democratic and one on the Republican side. The vote was first taken on the motion to adjourn, and it was defeated by 67 yeas to 74 nays. The motion for a call of the house was then taken by a standing vote and it appeared defeated by a vote of 87 yeas to 70 nays.
